

SPAN 350 - Oral Exam 1 Guidelines

Prompt: You meet some new classmates. You should conduct introductions and respond to the question of where you are from and how you are doing that day. You will then talk about activities you do and what frequency you do them. You will also each offer something and one of the other people must decline. Finally, you should creatively incorporate an apology (this may require a little acting), a request for the time, and a statement of what time it is in the conversation. Make sure you include all of the language functions listed below in your interaction.

Language Functions to Review:

- I. Greetings
- II. Introductions
  - A. Introducing yourself
  - B. Introducing someone else
  - C. Ask someone how they are doing that day
- III. Nationalities/ terms of origin
  - A. Asking someone for their place of origin
  - B. Stating where you are from
- IV. Telling Time
  - A. Asking for the time
  - B. Telling Time
- V. Talking about Routines
  - A. Frequency of Activities
- VI. Apologies, Requests Refusals
  - A. Using Appropriate Apologies
  - B. Refusing or Declining Something
- VII. Conjugations with -AR verbs
  - A. Conjugations in present tense for all personal pronouns